1 (The following proceedings were held in open court.)

2 THE COURT: The matter now before the Court is 3 United States of America versus Jerry Towns, Criminal 4 Case Number 19-CR-1020. This matter comes on for a 5 sentencing hearing. The United States is represented by 6 Assistant United States Attorney Tony Morfitt. The 7 defendant is personally present and represented by 8 attorney Mike Lahammer. Also participating by telephone 9 is United States Probation Officer Stacy Sturdevant. She 10 is the author of the presentence investigation report 11 that was filed at document number 50 in the court's file.

12 On December 23, 2019, the defendant pled guilty to 13 one count of a five-count indictment. He pled guilty to 14 a lesser included offense of Count 3 of the indictment 15 that charged him with the crime of distribution of 16 cocaine. This was in violation of Title 21 United States 17 Code Sections 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(C).

18 That crime is punishable under the statute by up to 19 20 years in prison without the possibility of parole.
20 After the defendant has served his prison sentence, the 21 Court will place him on a term of supervised release of 22 at least 3 years and it can be up to life on supervised 23 release. Probation is an option; and were the Court to 24 impose probation, it would be for a term of 1 to 5 years.
25 The Court can impose a fine of up to $1 million. And the 1 Court must impose a mandatory special assessment of $100.

2 Mr. Morfitt, on behalf of the United States, have 3 you had a full and fair opportunity to review the 4 presentence report in this case?

5 MR. MORFITT: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Does the government have any 7 objections to the calculation of the advisory guidelines 8 or anything else in the report?

9 MR. MORFITT: None, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 Mr. Lahammer, on behalf of Mr. Towns, have you and 12 your client had a full and fair opportunity to review the 13 presentence report?

14 MR. LAHAMMER: We have, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: When I went through the report, I 16 noted some objections by the defendant. There was an 17 objection at paragraph 31, 32, and 36. Those all are 18 criminal history -- in the criminal history section, and 19 they were additional facts or narratives, objections, or 20 explanations. Are there any of those objections that you 21 believe the Court needs to rule on today?

22 MR. LAHAMMER: I do not, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: And then I noted that there was 24 another objection at paragraph 46 to a pending charge.
25 Were those all the objections the defendant has to the

1 presentence report?

2 MR. LAHAMMER: Those are all the objections, 3 Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Very good. Mr. Lahammer, could you 5 make a brief record of how you went through this report 6 with your client?

7 MR. LAHAMMER: Yes, Your Honor. Upon receipt 8 of the draft presentence report March 4th, I provided a 9 copy to my client at the jail. Subsequently, I met with 10 him, and we reviewed it paragraph by paragraph to 11 determine if there was any exceptions or objections that 12 we had to the information in the report. Based on that 13 meeting, I filed objections to the report.

14 Upon receipt of the final report April 1st, I again 15 provided a copy to my client at the jail. And again, we 16 discussed subsequently if we had any additional 17 objections or exceptions.

18 Based on those meetings, we filed a sentencing memo
19 with the Court and also a motion for downward variance, 20 along with a brief.

21 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Lahammer.

22 Mr. Towns, I noted when I looked through this 23 presentence report that you did not complete high school 24 or earn a GED, but were you able to read through this 25 report on your own, sir?

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Do you feel like you've had 3 sufficient time to go through this report with 4 Mr. Lahammer?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Whenever you have spoken with 7 Mr. Lahammer about this report, has he been able to 8 answer any questions you've had about it?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Do you have any questions today
11 about this report?

12 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

13 THE COURT: All right. Let's turn first then 14 to the calculation of the advisory guideline range as 15 determined by the probation office. That calculation 16 begins at page 6. At paragraph 13, the probation office 17 has assessed the defendant with a base offense level of 18 12 based on the drug quantity and the table at section 19 2D1.1 of the guidelines.

20 At paragraph 14, the defendant has been assessed 21 with a 2-level enhancement for possession of a firearm
22 under section 2D1.1(b)(1). That gives us an adjusted 23 offense level of 14.

24 Under Chapter 4 of the guidelines, the probation 25 office has determined the defendant qualifies as a career

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 offender based on his age, criminal history, and nature 2 of offenses. This is under section 4B1.1(b)(3). That 3 changes his offense level to a 32.

4 The defendant has pled guilty to this offense, and 5 so the probation office has awarded him with a 2-level 6 reduction for acceptance of responsibility under section 7 3E1.1(a) of the guidelines. Mr. Morfitt, what is the 8 government's position about whether the defendant should 9 receive an additional 1-level reduction for entering a 10 timely guilty plea under section 3E1.1(b)?

11 MR. MORFITT: The government moves for the 12 additional level, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: The Court grants that motion. And 14 so with 3 levels off for acceptance of responsibility, 15 the defendant's total offense level would be 29.

16 The defendant has some criminal history, which the 17 probation office has summarized and scored beginning at 18 paragraph 24 and carrying over to paragraph 43. The 19 defendant's prior convictions have resulted in 10 20 criminal history points. Because the defendant committed 21 the instant offense while under a criminal justice 22 sentence, 2 additional points were added, for a total of 23 12 criminal history points. That would place him in 24 criminal history category V. But because the defendant 25 qualifies as a career offender under the Chapter 4

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 provision, at 4B1.1 -- yeah, 4B1.1(b), the defendant's
2 criminal history category becomes a VI. So with a total 3 offense level of 29, criminal history category VI, the 4 advisory guideline range of imprisonment is 151 to 5 188 months.

6 In preparation for today's sentencing hearing, I
7 have reviewed in detail, of course, the presentence
8 investigation report. I have also reviewed the pleadings 9 by the parties. The defendant filed a sentencing 10 memorandum at document number 53. At document number 54, 11 the defendant filed a motion for a downward variance.
12 And at document number 55, the government filed a 13 resistance to that downward variance motion.

14 Mr. Morfitt, are there any other pleadings or 15 documents that I should have reviewed in preparation for 16 today's hearing?

17 MR. MORFITT: No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Lahammer?

19 MR. LAHAMMER: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. So the only matter 21 before the Court then is determining the ultimate 22 sentence and whether I should vary from the advisory 23 guideline range. The burden is on the defendant to 24 persuade the Court to vary from the advisory guideline 25 range, but it is my practice generally to hear first from

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 the government regarding any downward variance motion and 2 the ultimate disposition they believe is appropriate.
3 That then gives the defense attorney an opportunity to 4 respond to the government's argument and make their own 5 argument, and then I will hear from Mr. Towns if he 6 wishes to say anything to me, and then I'll impose 7 sentence.

8 And so, Mr. Morfitt, I'll hear from you first, sir.

9 MR. MORFITT: Yes, Your Honor. For the reasons
10 stated in our resistance at docket 55, the government 11 does resist the motion for a downward variance and 12 requests the Court sentence the defendant to the bottom 13 of the guideline range, undisputed guideline range, as 14 calculated by the Court, 151 months.

15 The defendant is a career offender. He had two 16 prior felony drug offenses, and then was distributing 17 cocaine on multiple occasions in this case. He did have 18 a relatively low quantity of drugs, as reported in the 19 presentence report, and then the career offender bump 20 bumps up his guideline range significantly. However, 21 that is appropriate in this case. This defendant's 22 history and characteristics, particularly his criminal 23 history, demonstrate he is a danger to the community and 24 at a high risk to recidivate, and a significant sentence 25 is necessary to deter him from committing future criminal

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 acts and to protect the public. He not only has the two 2 prior felony drug offenses, he has numerous other 3 convictions that show he has zero respect for the law and 4 is at a high risk to recidivate, including interference 5 with official acts on multiple occasions, escape from 6 custody twice, assault on a police officer. He's also 7 had a terrible record while on supervision, having 8 violated conditions of release on numerous occasions.

9       So, in short, this is a defendant who has earned the 10 career offender designation and shown that he has no 11 respect for the law and will not comply with the law.
12 I'd also note that the nature and circumstances of this 13 offense in some ways show an escalation of his criminal 14 behavior. Here, he was not only distributing cocaine 15 near multiple protected locations, his girlfriend after 16 he got arrested attempted to smuggle more cocaine and, 17 perhaps most concerningly, a loaded firearm out of his 18 apartment at his behest when he got stopped by law 19 enforcement in a traffic stop. So he's not only 20 continuing to deal drugs, he's now in possession of 21 loaded firearms at the time, so his danger to the 22 community has only increased over time. Therefore, we do 23 resist the motion for the downward variance, for the 24 other reasons stated in our resistance, and ask the Court 25 to sentence him to 151 months, the bottom of the

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 guideline range, and 3 years of supervised release to 2 follow.

3 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Morfitt.
4 Mr. Lahammer.

5 MR. LAHAMMER: Thank you, Your Honor. Your 6 Honor, I won't regurgitate everything we put in our 7 motion for a downward variance, but I would like to 8 highlight a couple items. First off is his criminal 9 history is already reflected in his original scoring of 10 his category V criminal history under the guidelines 11 before the career offender kicks in. Our main argument 12 on the variance, Your Honor, is that the career offender 13 guideline -- advisory guideline, I should point out -- 14 overstates the seriousness of the offense in this case.
15 The two priors in May of 2009 and August of 2012 involve 16 a total of 2.33 grams of crack in the first offense and 17 .6 grams of crack in the second offense. There was a 18 conspiracy to distribute that involved 2.2 grams in that 19 second offense as well, which would make it a total of 20 2.8 grams, so basically you are talking about 5.1 grams 21 total which form the basis for a career offender.
22 There's nothing to distinguish the conduct and priors in 23 Mr. Towns's offense from somebody who distributed 24 50 grams or 100 grams or 500 grams in the past forming 25 the basis for predicates. And in this case, we have an

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 adjusted offense level of 14, criminal history V, for 33 2 to 41 months under the guidelines, prior to taking into 3 account Chapter 4. Chapter 4 makes it a 151 to 188.
4 That's significant in this case, Your Honor.

5 We also brought up his upbringing, the foster care, 6 the group home, the neighborhood. His whole family sold 7 drugs. Ever since he was a toddler, he's seen his 8 cousins and family members selling drugs. And that was 9 his environment growing up. And we take exception to the 10 government's statement in their resistance, "Nothing in 11 his background is so unusual or out of the norm as to 12 warrant a variance." Well, certainly, the drafters of 13 the guidelines didn't come up with the guidelines based 14 on everybody having been in foster care or a group home, 15 having been abandoned by their father and temporarily by 16 their mother, and where the whole family is dealing drugs 17 his whole life.

18 So it's based on that, the minimal quantities, the 19 fact that without the priors he would be at 33 to 20 41 months, that we are asking for a downward variance in 21 this case. We would leave that to the discretion of the 22 Court, but we argue that 151 to 188 months is certainly 23 overstating the seriousness of the offense in this case.

24 We would also have additional information we'd like 25 to provide the Court at sidebar in order for the Court to

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 be fully informed and make a decision under all the 2 factors under 3553(a) in this case.

3 THE COURT: All right. Here's how we're going 4 to do this in this day of a pandemic, is instead of 5 having this at sidebar, I'm going to ask everybody in the 6 courtroom, except for government personnel, to leave the 7 courtroom temporarily so I can have a private 8 conversation with the parties, and then we'll invite you 9 back in here in a couple minutes. So I just ask you to 10 step outside and the court security officer will invite 11 you back in when it's time.

15 (The following was held in open court.)

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Lahammer, anything 17 further you'd like to say at this time?

18 MR. LAHAMMER: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Very good. Mr. Towns, this is the 20 time in the hearing when you have an opportunity to speak 21 to me directly, to tell me anything you'd like me to take 22 into account in determining your sentence. You don't 23 have to say anything. And if you choose not to say 24 anything, I won't hold that against you in any way. But 25 if there's anything you'd like to say, now is the time to

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 do so. Is there anything you'd like to say, sir?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I want to say something, 3 briefly.

4 THE COURT: Go right ahead.

5 THE DEFENDANT: I just want to apologize to the 6 courts, and most of all to my family, my children. I 7 just want to say I'm looking forward to rehabilitating 8 myself throughout this process, and I've got to step it 9 up for my family. So I just want to say I apologize.
10 That's it.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Towns.

12 In arriving at a sentence that is sufficient but not 13 greater than necessary to achieve the goals of 14 sentencing, I have considered all the factors set forth 15 at Title 18 United States Code Section 3553(a). Even if 16 I do not mention each of them in my comments here today, 17 I have taken them into account in determining the 18 defendant's sentence.

19 Turning first to the nature and circumstances of the 20 offense conduct, the defendant was involved in this 21 investigation for a period of the summer of 2017 into the 22 fall of 2018, in the distribution of cocaine and cocaine 23 base. There was a controlled buy from the defendant in 24 August of 2017. About four months later, officers 25 conducted a traffic stop on a customer who provided

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 information that led to a search warrant of the 2 defendant's house. During that search, officers 3 recovered cocaine residue, a digital scale, plastic 4 baggies with corners missing, and some ecstasy pills.
5 That did not deter the defendant. After that occurred, 6 law enforcement officers were able to make two more 7 controlled buys of cocaine from the defendant in August 8 and September of 2018. There was ultimately a search 9 warrant of the defendant, defendant's residence again.
10 The defendant did contact his girlfriend to try to have 11 her remove cocaine and a loaded firearm from the 12 residence when he was apprehended in connection with that 13 investigation.

14 Turning to the defendant's history and 15 characteristics, the defendant is 31 years old, married, 16 and has six dependent children. The defendant is in good 17 health physically and has no history of mental illness or 18 difficulties there.

19 The defendant has used marijuana since the age of 20 20 and has had some treatment on three different occasions, 21 in 2010, 2014, and 2016.

22 He did not complete high school or earn his GED.
23 His employment history is very limited. It doesn't 24 appear that he's worked in a legitimate job at all for 25 the last six years and has limited employment before

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 that. This is reflected at both paragraphs 70 and 71 of 2 the presentence report. Before the pandemic hit, we had 3 record low unemployment. There's no reason why the 4 defendant with children shouldn't have been out working a 5 legitimate job, earning money to take care of his 6 children.

7 Mr. Lahammer described accurately the defendant's 8 upbringing. It was poor in the sense the defendant did 9 not have a father in his life. He was in foster care.
10 He was separated from his mother for a period of time.
11 He was not taken care of. It appears he grew up in an 12 environment where drug dealing was basically the way 13 things were done, and that's what he learned growing up.

14 The defendant's criminal history is troubling, both 15 in the nature of the offenses and in the quantity. By my 16 count, the defendant has 13 adult convictions. I'm not 17 counting the juvenile convictions. 9 of those 13
18 occurred while the defendant was on probation or parole 19 for another offense. 4 of them involved violence. 8 of 20 the convictions didn't even score any criminal points.
21 And despite that, the defendant still earned 10 criminal 22 history points. He engaged in the instant criminal 23 conduct while under criminal justice sentences, so he was 24 on probation or parole when he committed the instant 25 offense. He's been previously convicted twice of

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 controlled substances offenses. That has not deterred 2 him. He has not received significant sentences, and 3 other courts being lenient with the defendant has not 4 deterred him.

5 The defendant's argument -- and it's a good argument 6 by Mr. Lahammer -- that the drug quantities involved in 7 his prior convictions that establish the predicates 8 making him a career offender were very small and it does 9 not distinguish him from other drug dealers dealing with 10 a larger quantity of controlled substances, that argument 11 has some purchase, but here's the way I'm looking at 12 this. The -- Congress and the Sentencing Commission have 13 attempted to determine how to sentence people based on a 14 couple things when it comes to drug dealing. One is drug 15 quantity, and so the guidelines and mandatory minimum 16 sentences are driven in part by drug quantities, and the 17 greater the drug quantity, the greater the mandatory 18 minimum, the greater the guideline sentence is. The 19 other way that the guidelines address it, the Sentencing 20 Commission and the Congress has addressed how to punish 21 drug dealers, is to look at the pattern of activity, 22 regardless of the drug quantity involved. Is this a 23 person who is making a career out of dealing drugs? And 24 when that happens, regardless of the drug quantity 25 involved, it shows a pattern of conduct that reflects a

Contact Patrice Murray at PAMurrayReporting@gmail.com
for a complete copy of the transcript.

1 danger to the community, it reflects a lack of 2 deterrence, a lack -- and a high degree of recidivism 3 that is deserving of greater punishment, both to protect 4 the community by removing the defendant from the 5 community for a period of time, and also to deter the 6 defendant and other people from making their livelihood 7 by selling drugs.

8 And so while I recognize the drug quantity in this 9 case was relatively small that led to the predicate
10 offenses of conviction, I find that the career offender 11 categorization of this defendant was well earned.
12 Looking again at his employment history against his 13 criminal history, it's very clear that this defendant has 14 made a living selling drugs, and prior convictions 15 haven't deterred him, prior contact with law enforcement 16 hasn't deterred him, and this is what he does for a 17 living. He is, under any common definition of a career 18 offender, a career offender. And so I find that that 19 application is appropriate here.

20 His childhood is a mitigating factor. But under the 21 circumstances, I don't find it to be a sufficiently 22 mitigating factor to call for a sentence below the 23 advisory guideline range. It does call for a sentence at 24 the bottom of the advisory guideline range though.

25 And so taking into account all the factors set forth

1 at Title 18 United States Code Section 3553(a), it is the 2 judgment of this Court that you are hereby committed to 3 the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for 4 a term of 151 months. It is ordered that the term of 5 imprisonment for the instant offense be served 6 consecutive to any term of imprisonment that may be 7 imposed in the Georgia District Court for Fulton County, 8 case number 17-009401. This is under Title 18 United 9 States Code Section 3584.

10 It is recommended that you be designated to a Bureau
11 of Prisons facility in close proximity to your family 12 which is commensurate with your security and custody 13 classification needs. It's further recommended that you 14 participate in the Bureau of Prisons' 500-hour 15 Comprehensive Residential Drug Abuse Treatment Program or 16 an alternate substance abuse treatment program. Upon 17 release from imprisonment, you will be placed on 18 supervised release for a term of 3 years. While on 19 supervised release, you must comply with the following 20 mandatory conditions: You must not commit another 21 federal, state, or local crime; you must not unlawfully 22 use or possess a controlled substance; and you must 23 cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample as directed 24 by your probation officer. In addition, you must comply 25 with the standard conditions of supervision, which will

1 be set out in my judgment order, and with all of the 2 special conditions set forth at paragraphs 83 through 86 3 of the presentence report.

4 It is ordered that you must pay to the United States 5 a special assessment of $100, which will be due 6 immediately. I find that you do not have the ability to 7 pay a fine or community restitution, and so none will be 8 imposed.

9 You are hereby remanded to the custody of the United 10 States Marshal.

11 Mr. Morfitt, there remains Counts 1, 2, 4, and 5 12 that are pending against the defendant.

13 MR. MORFITT: Yes, Your Honor. The government 14 moves to dismiss Counts 1, 2, 4, and 5 as to this 15 defendant.

16 THE COURT: The Court grants that motion, and 17 Counts 1, 2, 4 and 5 are hereby dismissed.

18 Mr. Morfitt, before I advise Mr. Towns of his rights 19 to appeal, is there anything else on behalf of the United 20 States?

21 MR. MORFITT: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Officer Sturdevant?

23 PROBATION OFFICER: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: And Mr. Lahammer?

25 MR. LAHAMMER: Briefly, Your Honor. I've got a

1 receipt here for the $100 special assessment. We would 2 ask that that be reflected in the judgment and commitment 3 order.

4 THE COURT: Very good. If you could provide 5 that to my law clerk after the hearing, we'll make sure 6 that appears in the judgment and committal order.
7 Anything further, Mr. Lahammer?

8 MR. LAHAMMER: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Very good.

10 Mr. Towns, let me talk to you, sir, about your 11 rights to appeal. If you disagree with the sentence I've 12 just imposed, you have the right to appeal that sentence 13 to a higher court. That court is called the Eighth 14 Circuit Court of Appeals. To appeal to that court, you 15 would have to file a written notice of appeal with the 16 Clerk of Court for the Northern District of Iowa here in 17 Cedar Rapids, Iowa, within the next 14 days. If you fail 18 to file a written notice of appeal in the next 14 days, 19 you give up forever your right to appeal the sentence 20 I've just imposed. If you would like to appeal and you 21 cannot afford the services of an attorney to do so, then 22 I would appoint an attorney to represent you on appeal at 23 no expense to you. Do you understand your right to 24 appeal, sir?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

1           THE COURT: Do you have any questions about 2 anything we've done here today, sir?

3           THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

4           THE COURT: Mr. Lahammer, anything further?

5           MR. LAHAMMER: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

6           THE COURT: Mr. Morfitt?

7           MR. MORFITT: No, Your Honor.

8           THE COURT: Thank you. That concludes the 9 hearing.
